

Specialization module “Transboundary Ecosystem Management and Conflict Prevention”

DAAD project: The Balkan Green Belt - a learning site for transboundary nature conservation and sustainable regional development

Content: CMP Open Standards for the Practice of Conservation. Short: Conservation Standards (CS)

Time: 25. August – 3. September 2022,
+ two online sessions á 3 hours the week before

Location: Sharr/Sar-Korab-Koritnik mountain region, Kosovo / Albania / Northern Macedonia

Participating universities: University of Tirana (Albania), University of Prishtina (Kosovo), University of Donja Gorica (Montenegro), University of Ioannina (Greece), Eberswalde University for Sustainable Development (Germany)

Module responsible: Prof. Dr. Pierre Ibisch

Lecturers: CS Coaches/CCNet Europe

Available places: 21

ECTS-Credits: 6

Costs covered: Food, accommodation, travel

Application procedure: Motivation letter, CV

Organisation and contact: jkloiber@hnee.de

Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst
German Academic Exchange Service

Specialization module “Transboundary Ecosystem Management and Conflict Prevention”

Format:

- Theoretical lectures
- Assisted group work
- Excursions to case study area
- Interviews with local stakeholders
- Peer reviews

Tools:

- Conservation Measure Partnership (CMP)
- Open Standards for the Practice of Conservation 4.0 (CS)

Topics:

- Transboundary ecosystem management
- Ecosystem-based development
- Strategic conservation planning

Goal: Developing an initial transboundary management plan for the case study area.

Photos: Judith Kloiber

Organisation and contact: jkloiber@hnee.de